WINNING VICTORY FOR AMERICAN

Gen. Logan Chosen Manager of White Fund

2 VICTORIES IN AMERICAN PRISON FIGHT

Alien Adds $155,000 to Norfolk Budget; 150 Convicts to Be Shifted There

The Boston Evening American's campaign for abandonment of the antiquated state prison at Charlestown took two strides toward complete today.

Governor Allen, in his supplementary budget sent to the Legislature, included an item of $155,000 extra for work on the prison colony at Norfolk, making $450,000 available for expenditure there by next March.

The Boston State Penal Commission, headed by C. R. Bagley, announced that more than 150 prisoners, now at Charlestown, would be transferred to Norfolk early in the fall.

The $155,000 included in the budget sent to the general court today was supplementary to the $125,000 included in the general appropriation bill. With the $125,000 balance unexpended it makes a total of $450,000 available to run work at Norfolk in order that the state prison may be more quickly abandoned.

Both the governor's new appropriation and Deputy Commissioner Bagley's announcement regarding the Boston Evening American's exposure of fire trap and unsanitary conditions in the 100-year-old Charlestown institution, which the state is now endeavoring to safeguard the lives of prisoners at Charlestown while the work is being speeded up at Norfolk, for the supplementary budget contained an item of $25,000 for fire prevention work there.

MEANS QUICKER ACTION

This work will be along the line outlined in the Boston American's campaign and the recommendations of the Boston fire department, made following the outbreak at the Columbian O. pentagonary.

An item of $25,000 for similar work at the Concord Reformatory was also included.

Provision for the maintenance of 50,000 state prison inmates at Norfolk was also suggested by the governor. This, it is believed, will be taken from the general fund and may mean that a total of 250

'Alien' Dog Aids Cop in Fight

Patrolman Thomas Grady was having a struggle with two inebriates on a lonely road in Lynn last night when assistance, four-legged and unsummoned, leaped out of the dark.

A large German shepherd dog recognized his duty as a naturalized citizen and fastened his teeth in the clothing of one of the men, the greatest resistance.

Patrolman Grady banded his own into a police car and took the wheel. The dog, wishing to be on hand in case of further trouble, sat beside him.

There was no collar on the dog and police haven't yet found his owner.

Italy's Mussolini

A Wonderful Girl
Russia, Wrong and Right
Mussolini's Warning
The Big Bootleg Industry
By Arthur Brisbane

IN A TINY MOTH PLANE, with one small engine, Amy Johnson, 25 years old, British, has flown alone from England to Australia.

Fighting storms, forced to land to live, starting "time" without help, the young girl flew the 10,000 miles from England to Australia in less than 29 days.

Yesterday Miss Johnson, with three planes escorting her, was to fly over the wilderness between Port Darwin and Brisbane, later flying on to address the parliament at Canberra. She will come to this country to meet her father and mother. And this country will be "pleased to meet her."

England reports that "king and commoner are thrilled." No wonder. Flying offers wonderful opportunities to young women. It requires courage, good nerves, intelligence, in all of which they excel.

Russia's Communists may be wrong in their social and economic theories, but they are right in their attitude towards their own country.

The Soviet Air League has 5,000,000 members. Russia knows that future war will be air war.

A young Communist organization is training 2,000,000 young Russians in drilling, the use of arms. Some of our "how much I love you, let us all be peaceful" Americans could learn something in Russia.

With India in rebellion, China flaming with war, hatred of Italy flaring against Germany, Italian hatred of France outspoken, Jugoslavia expecting to be turned against Italy, France, Kemal Pasha expressing his readiness to whip anybody, no wonder Russia feels war possible and probable and is ready to be ready.

The nations in Europe would be safest in another war, Switzerland, small nation, Russia, biggest nation. They would be safe, because they are ready.

Talking to a crowd of 100,000 at the Plaza del Sucre at Milan, Mussolini heard savage cries of "down with France."

He told his audience that he knew "what other nations were doing, how they felt toward Italy, and that Italy was not alone."

He said that Italy was suddenly awakened with a start by some tragic turn of the wheel of history.

France and other European countries will keep out of war, if they can. But war comes like a flash of lightning, and it is coming tomorrow, with its hatreds, flaming patriotism, its fiery call for recruits, promising big support, profiteers calling for "hot issues, etc."

This country should be warned by Mussolini, who speaks out, warned by Britain and Japan, that makes fools of our delusions sent abroad, warned, above all, against the danger of World War, and League of Nations entanglements.

We do not want a million other American Gold Star mothers engaging their passage to visit European graveyards.

Mr. Solomon, arrested by prohibition agents in a $100,000 bootleg distillery in Newark, N. J., at first offered $100,000 to the agent. Finally he said, "I'll go as high as $400,000." And he warned "that" raising agent. "You'll get a lot of your friends in trouble by this. Prohibition headquarters is protecting us and a lot of men will lose their jobs." The $1,000,000 distillery has a capacity of 10,000 gallons a day, worth at retail $100,000, about $500,000 a week. Bootlegging has become an important industry.

BOBBY JONES IN THIRD ROUND

By F. A. WHAY

St. Andrews, Scotland, May 26 (INS)—Taking his first 18-hole hurdle with the ease of an antelope, Bobby Jones, world's greatest golfer, advanced to the third round of the British amateur golf championship this afternoon with a victory over S. Roger, Nottingham champion, by 3 up and 2 to play.

The victory came in the second round, after Jones had drawn a bye in the first round this morning, and thus the American ace was into the body of the championship.

The letter read in part: "A meeting of the George Robert White Fund trustees was held this day at City Hall to consider the selection of a manager for the fund. Lieut. Gen. Logan was elected manager of the fund for a term of five years under the same terms and conditions as applied in the management of the fund when under the direction of the late George S. Phelps."

CURLEY WISHES MY SUCCESS

"Wishing you every success in the management of this great fund, which is a great honor to me, and I am sure you will do it to the satisfaction of all to whom they have been entrusted."

GRUNDY DEFEAT COST $332,076

Penambuco, Brazil, May 26 (AP)—The Graf Zeppelin returned to Pernambuco today from its journey down the Brazilian coast to Rio Janeiro. Repairs were immediately begun for the start.

The Zeppelin will leave Pernambuco Wednesday for Havana. The hour of her departure has not yet been made known.

The Graf's stay in Havana will be short, allowing only time enough to take on provisions.

The trip back to the short red and white mooring mast here from the Brazilian capital took 20 hours and 45 minutes. It was made in better weather than the down trip when a heavy rain and rain deterred progress and made riding bumpy and unpleasant.

A holiday was declared by the governor here in honor of the trip.

The Graf first appeared over Pernambuco at 8:30 a. m. and a night of 24 hours.

Mooring operations were completed at 11:30 a. m. and the Graf was towed to the mooring mast.

PROHIBITION FREES J. E. FARRAR; INDICTED IN BOSTON

U. S. Supreme Court Upholds Contention Buying From Bootleg Is Not Illegal

Washington, May 26 (AP)—The high court today cannot under ordinary circumstances be prosecuted.

In one of the most important decisions today, the U. S. Supreme Court today made this ruling in the case of J. E. Farrar, a Boston bootlegger.

At the same time it also ruled that bootleggers who ship liquor to other states are not involved in the sale of it, provided they do not deliver it to the purchaser at the place of sale.

The ruling was that of Chief Justice Charles E. Hughes, who said that bootleggers who ship liquor to other states are not involved in the sale of it, provided they do not deliver it to the purchaser at the place of sale.

The ruling was that of Chief Justice Charles E. Hughes, who said that bootleggers who ship liquor to other states are not involved in the sale of it, provided they do not deliver it to the purchaser at the place of sale.

FARRAR CASE RULING

No dissent was announced to the opinion in the Farrar case, which follows.

"However that may be it is fair to assume that Congress, when it came to pass the prohibition act, knew this history and, setting in the light of it, deliberately and designedly omitted to impose upon the purchaser of liquor for beverage purposes and criminal liability."

If all were needed to support this view of the matter, it would be found in the facts contained by the government itself, that during the first five years of the national prohibition act, at a period of 10 years, the sale of 1.5 v. of drink was charged with the administration and enforcement of the act have authorized, it is not including the purchaser in a case of this kind, the government prosecution until the present one has ever been sustained by the courts. The decision is expected to result in a reversal of the government's position in prohibition enforcement.

The Farrar case was selected as a test case by the government. Attorney General Mitchell selected it in an attempt to solve troublesome questions in prohibition enforcement.

G. O. P. VOTES TO RUSH PACT

Washington, May 26 (AP)—The Navy's heaviest artillery was trained on the London naval treaty today, while Republicans leaders decided that the pact should be ratified by the Senate before adjournment.

Admiral Charles F. Hughes, chief of operations; Rear Admiral William H. Huff, and others before the foreign relations committee roundly condemned the agreement of arms limitations as unfair to the United States.

"In my opinion," Admiral Huff said, "the treaty could be disastrous."

"We have given up our right to build the ships we need. We have abandoned the 5-5-10 rule. We have surrendered the principle of no replacement in 1936. We did not press hard, as we might have, for actual parity. We gave up our superiority in gunnery in return for a Japan parity in submarines."

"I Gentlemen, I have studied what we get in return for all this—and I do not find anything."

"We get nothing, admirals!" inquired Senator Reed (R) of Iowa, a delegate to the conference.

"Very little."

"But you said at first we got nothing."

convicts may be transferred in the fall.

Deputy Commissioner Bagley said the order for transfer would be made effective at once if the new buildings at Norfolk were ready.

"We are trying to relieve the present situation by transferring as many as possible to the colony at Norfolk," he said.

"Small groups of three and four are sent there just as soon as parole and other releases permit room there."

"We cannot take care of the large groups until the fall, but we anticipate the transfer of 100 or more to the new buildings now nearing completion."

The heating apparatus and other finishing processes must be installed during July and August to make ready for the fall.

"Our transfer, made now, on conditions permit, have been averaging about 20 prisoners each month."

"The report of Sept. Gill at the colony for May is about 110 prisoners housed there. The report of a week later showed 120, of which two later were parole and one escaped, making a net gain of nine prisoners."

Former Gandhi Devotee to Address Peace League

By NANCY BREWSTER

"The Gandhi First India?"

This is something everyone wants to know, particularly in these days of reported activities in India and T. M. "Before my last baby was born, I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I got such good results that I named her Catharine after Lydia. I have six older children and five grandchildren, too. I am now taking the Vegetable Compound again because of my age. I eat and sleep better and I do all my housework, and my washing. I will do my best to answer letters."

Mrs. Harold Goodnow, 36 Canal St., Fitchburg, Massachusetts.

"I cannot praise my medicine enough. After my baby came I was run down. I had to go to bed often through the day. I took three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I felt like a different woman. If any mother has those tired feelings I advise her to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. Lloyd R. Blasing, 115 So. Ohio St., Anaheim, California.

"After my baby came I was so nervous and tired that I felt miserable. One day a booklet was left at our door and after reading it I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am now on my fourth bottle and I feel much stronger. It has helped me in every way and I feel sure that other women in rundown condition will pick up if they will only take a few bottles."

Mrs. McCormick Is Strong Believer in Women's Clubs' Work

A strong believer in women's clubs and their apprenticeship for greater achievements is Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, successful candidate for the Senate in the recent Illinois primaries.

The country in general and clubwomen in particular are greatly interested in the triumph of this brilliant woman. Although she did not make her campaign on a "women's platform" in any sense of the word, Mrs. McCormick is a great booster for women's clubs and the club movement, generally. She was one of the organizers of the Chicago Woman's Club and holds membership in many other organizations in and out of her state.

She has said about clubs: "Club work induces study of public affairs, public officials and public opinion. It also affords experience in the most effective methods of organization for the accomplishment of desired results."

Women are chiefly responsible for the constitutional amendment giving the vote to women. Organizations of women have also accomplished much toward pushing suffrage. I hope and believe that our women will take even deeper interest in the government and politics as new opportunities bring new responsibilities."

LOST JUMPER FOUND DYING

Los Angeles, May 26 (AP)—Manning and his late unknown for many hours after he was last seen about five miles up the sky, Bert White, parachute jumper, was found last night near Lancaster.

Attracted by his feeble cries, a motorist stopped his car and upon investigation found White, semi-conscious, lying where he had crashed near the side of the road.

While he had dived from an aeroplane over Lancaster, 53 miles northeast of Los Angeles, in an attempt to break the world's record Earl Gordon, pilot of the plane from which the leap was made from an altitude of 20,000 feet, lost sight of White immediately after he jumped and tears were felt for his safety.

According to information received at the Grand Central Airport here, where the two men took off for the record attempt, White had a terrible experience as he plunged earthward with terrific speed. For part of the time he was unconscious, despite his special equipment. It was reported that he was in a bad condition and under the care of doctors at Lancaster.

more POWER ON THE HILLS

MAKE no mistake—there is a difference in gasolines. Every mile, every condition of driving provides some basis for comparison. More convincing than any other practical test is the one you make when your car starts up the grade.

Are you timid or confident as you approach the hills? Does your car hesitate—or does it surge ahead? The upward climb is easier if you use Atlantic, for here is where the extra power of Atlantic proves itself and its worth. Here is where you find a difference, a superiority of performance which is truly amazing.

Atlantic Gasoline invites comparison by any test. For power . . . speed . . . pick-up . . . mileage. Every test in the laboratory or in the field proves conclusively the higher efficiency of this, the balanced Gasoline.

Balance in a gasoline means an unbroken series of boiling point fractions insuring quick starting, reserve power and maximum mileage. Atlantic the balanced Gasoline gives you finer performance at less cost per mile.

MAKE THIS POWER TEST

Fill your tank with Atlantic Gasoline but first drain out old gas to avoid mixing with inferior fuels. Take your car up "Coney Hill" or any other "test" hill and note the increased power of your motor.

DAILY ANTIQUE No. 105

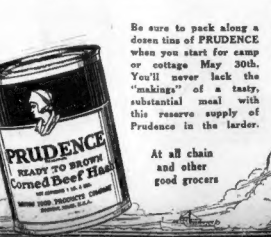

This chair, in Hepplewhite style, once belonged to Gov. John Hancock of Massachusetts, signer of the Declaration of Independence. It was part of the furnishings of his home which stood next to the present State House on the site of the Unitarian Society's building. The chair has the typical Hepplewhite shield back with curved splats converging at the bottom. The legs are straight and fluted, and have not the spade feet frequently found in this type. The chair is one of a set owned by John Hancock about 1780 and is now to be seen with others to match at the Lee Mansion, headquarters of the Marblehead Historical Society, Marblehead.

Boston American Correspondent
 Boston, May 25.—The Camel Races in the United States appeared during the past week in Boston.

His name is E. Subbuckinayya. He is a Hindu. He is one of your readers writing the tongue and pen of the East. He is attending meetings in Boston of the American League of Nations, coming here from Chicago, where he is pursuing a course of study in the law.

When asked, why he came to Boston for an education, he replied: "You make education interesting. You don't pound it in. You let it come to you."

One of the pilgrims signs drew in. From New York, Chicago, Havana, Liverpool, Sydney, Australia and other distant points, and finally came the City of Naples, flying the Papal colors, and bearing Cardinal Lepelletier, delegate of the Pope. He was hailed with acclamations, and the pilgrims joined in song.

The story was told in Tunis that the French Republic sent a boat to fetch the legate; that Signor Mussolini said he would do the honors and provide the banquet; and that the Holy See sent the legate.

The congress did not open until Wednesday afternoon, so we had to wait last day to see the emperor devoting ourselves to the purchase of a house in Tunis.

It was a beautiful day. The emperor chartered a bus and drove 300 miles through North Africa to the city of Tunis, site of extensive Christian churches, and the Roman city of Carthage, in the desert country. It was a beautiful day.

The weather was beautiful, and the temperature about 70. The roads were good, and the ancient monuments and cities were fascinating. We viewed the modern houses, saw the cathedral, and were in progress that day, and even were on the spot when the alarm came sweeping across the desert.

We viewed in comfort and safety from our bus, the harvest season in Tunisia, and the fields of wheat and corn with crops of wheat.

We returned by way of Tunis, so that we might attend the opening exercises of the congress, the exercises of the congress, the exercises of the congress, the exercises of the congress.

Why India Comes to U. S. for Education

Editor Boston American:

The man with one of the longest names in the United States appeared during the past week in Boston.

His name is E. Subbuckinayya. He is a Hindu. He is one of your readers writing the tongue and pen of the East. He is attending meetings in Boston of the American League of Nations, coming here from Chicago, where he is pursuing a course of study in the law.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

Editor Boston American:

Some of your correspondents seem to be laboring under the delusion that employers of labor shut down their factories at intervals because of some personal whim, thereby causing unemployment. The fact is, of course, that factory shutdowns, while unfortunate, are the natural result of seasonal slackening in demand, calls for changing of models, and any number of equally important reasons. No manufacturers or employers make profits, in the final analysis, when their factories are shut down. It is only through production and selling that profits are made.

One letter in particular showed a shocking lack of thought. When a correspondent named Kelley saw fit to criticize a company employing 28,000 for temporarily laying off a number of its men. In the first place, Mr. Kelley must know that such a shutdown is only made from wise business reasons, to prevent costly overproduction, or for one of the several reasons listed above. Secondly, Mr. Kelley should remember that these 28,000 men are receiving each year a tremendous amount of money from this same company in the way of wages. Temporary shutdowns are unfortunate for all concerned, but no way of preventing them has yet been discovered. Also, Mr. Kelley and all employees should remember that it is the boss who has all the money and who is the one who is going to meet the payroll and pay off the taxes. If the worker thinks he has all the troubles on his shoulders, let him put himself in his boss' place during slack times with a big payroll to meet and business slack.

Mr. Kelley seemed to be much incensed because one employee gave $15,000 to charity and spent $300,000 for tapestries, etc. Well, no man can be criticized for helping the poor and unfortunate. And most of that $300,000 went for wages to employees of other concerns, don't forget that, Mr. Kelley. If every rich man would loosen up and spend an equal amount, there would be considerably less unemployment. Far better that the rich spend their money, putting it back into circulation and ultimately getting back to the working man than that the money be hoarded or hidden away.

And I'll guarantee that this company Mr. Kelley refers to has done a lot of things for their employees that the public doesn't know or realize. The man who built up that particular company is one of America's foremost business men. He came up from the ranks himself and was the moving spirit in the building up of a small company into the largest in the world, employing the 28,000 men. He always has taken a vital interest in the welfare of his employees, and without his work and worry there would likely be no such great institution nor the payroll of 28,000 men. His generous largesse sums to charity and the type of man this country is proud of.

JOHN E. MINOTON.

Why not accept prison conditions as they are for awhile and instead of sympathizing with prisoners, drive home the need of keeping them out of the streets.

In the white light of truth, religion, and the church, school, etc. egregiously when he declares that "the human race is a fighting animal. He is not, he does not come into the world equipped by nature with horns, tails, or claws."

He has developed enough to make him a fighting animal (at first for hunting) before he turned to slaughter and plunder of his more defenseless kind. With these weapons, in the mountain fastnesses of the desert, the human family divided into clans and tribes, and finally into nations.

LEAGUE COURT CONDEMNED BY BOTH PARTIES

Washington, May 25.—Reputation of the League of Nations and the League Court by the Republicans of the state of Washington stirred a chorus of commendation from leading senators and congressmen today.

Warm approval of the Republican stand against American entry into any form of the Geneva tribunal came from Republicans as well as Democratic sources and even from the Senate.

Prominent Republicans like Senator William of Indiana, and Governor of Idaho were unanimous with their Democratic colleagues in their opposition to the League of Nations.

Stanley Winick, Lawrence, vs. Roland LeCuyer, Holyoke.
Storke Arcelli, Italy, vs. Charlie Kelly, Newton.

4 ROUNDS
Jimmy Rogers, Cambridge, vs. Kayo Brown, Cuba.
10 ROUNDS
Sammy Fuller, North End, vs. Andy Callahan, Lawrence.
First Bout—8-10.
Main Bout—10-15.

Sammy Fuller, pride of the North End and hero of a score of ring victories, makes his first serious bid for the N. E. lightweight title when he clashes with Andy Callahan of Lawrence at Mechanic Building tonight in the feature bout of the Argonne A. A. show.

In addition to the battle for the local title, which has been hanging fire for many months, Hub fans will get their first glimpse of Jack Sharkey before the Brighton heavyweight meets Max Schmeling of Germany for the world's title. Sharkey, in spite of the fact that he has been preparing for the most important bout of his entire career, has dropped everything to come to the Hub to occupy a seat at the ring-side tonight when Callahan participates in his most important bout.

Sharkey and Callahan are stable mates and the heavyweight always has been given credit for Callahan's rapid rise in the game. Sharkey left his Orangeburg, N. Y. camp yesterday in company with Johnny Buckley, his manager, and he will return early tomorrow. Callahan will accompany Sharkey when he returns to camp to aid him in his training in the closing acts of his hard work.

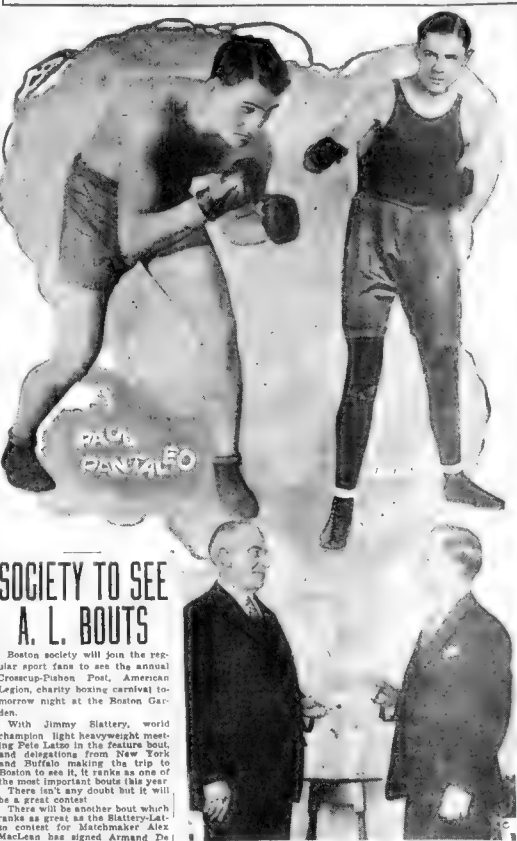

ature Has Strong Supporting Card

Supporting the contest for the lightweight crown, the best preliminary card of the year will be provided. Jimmy Rogers of Cambridge winner of six straight contests, five by the K. O. route since coming here, will clash with Kayo Brown of Cuba. Brown replaced Victoria Livan as Rogers' opponent. The Illinois boxing commission blocked Livan's appearance in the show. Livan meets Jackson Hansen in Chicago on the same card with Van Foret and Cagnon and the ring moguls realize to take a chance of an injury to Livan two days before the Chicago fight.

Another feature of the show tonight will be the professional debut of Charlie Kelly, Newton, national 147 pound champion who meets Walter Arcelli, welterweight champion of Italy.

In another six rounder on the card, Johnny Sweeney, South Boston meets Odonne Pusa, Italian middleweight. In other six rounders, Stanley Winick, Lawrence clashes with Roland LeCuyer of Pittsfield, who recently beat his Lawrence rival, Albin Holden, former state champion meets Freddie O'Connor of South Boston and Al Lind, Italy. MacLean is staging regularly at meets Eddie Kelly of New York.

PUNCH OUT DOLLARS FOR CHARITY

SOCIETY TO SEE A. L. BOUTS

Boston society will join the regular sport fans to see the annual Crosscup-Pishon Post, American Legion, charity boxing carnival tomorrow night at the Boston Garden.

With Jimmy Slattery, world champion light heavyweight meeting Pete Latzo in the feature bout, and delegations from New York and Buffalo making the trip to Boston to see it, it ranks as one of the most important bouts this year. There isn't any doubt but it will be a great contest.

There will be another bout which ranks as great as the Slattery-Lazo contest for Matchmaker Alex MacLean has signed Armand De Carlos, a Spanish-Italian heavyweight, to meet Paul Pantalone instead of Chuck Burns of Texas. Burns was forced to ask permission to withdraw from the match with the Chicago heavyweight who held Schaefer to a draw on account of an engagement he has to fill in.

De Carlos, the 160-pound, 28-year-old heavyweight, six feet tall, is a protégé of Joe Woodman, a former Boston manager, and promoter and trainer of Sam Langford.

Woodman says he is the best heavyweight since he has seen Langford, which means that he is so heavyweight, and probably will be able to give Pantalone a better bout than Schaefer gave him in Chicago. Besides the two great fights and four bouts in the 116-pound class of the N. E. championship series, MacLean is staging regularly at meets Eddie Kelly of New York.

GOV. FRANK G. ALLEN

WALTER BROWN

L., which stages a charity show tomorrow night at the Boston Garden, will present Jimmy Slattery, light heavyweight champion, who meets Pete Latzo, and Paul Pantalone, who fights Armand De Carlos, in the feature bouts of the evening. Among the notables who are expected to attend are Governor Allen, who is shown above purchasing a bond to insure the success of the show, from Walter Brown, vice-commander of the Crosscup-Pishon Post and general chairman of the committee in charge of the show, Mayor Curley and the governors of the New England states, who have been invited an honorary guests.

HARVARD NINE IN BUSY WEEK

Harvard varsity baseball team faces a heavy schedule this week, meeting Georgetown in a return game at Soldiers Field tomorrow, and traveling to Providence to encounter the Brown nine on Friday. Saturday will find the Crimson nine at Worcester for the first game with Holy Cross. Tomorrow, also, the second freshman crew will take its shell to Southport for a race with the St. Mark's eight-oared boat. There are four home events on Friday: the ball game at Providence, Yale's lacrosse team will invade Cambridge to meet the Crimson, and the Army polo team will offer the Harvard riders a chance to vindicate their wasteful loss from Yale last Saturday. Officials and athletes will be busy at the stadium where the I. C. G. A. trials are in take place.

The basis of leadership

READ AGAIN the familiar message on the back of the Camel package. . . . Camel, introduced in 1913, when other cigarette brands were offering all sorts of premiums and similar inducements, jumped into leadership solely on the basis of its built-in goodness.

That statement, spread throughout the world each day on millions upon millions of Camel packages, stands as your guarantee of the maximum in smoke pleasure. It reaffirms on every package of Camels the steadfast aim to give smokers a cigarette in which every possible bit of the cost is put into real smoke-quality.

The delightful natural fragrance of Camel's choicer tobaccos, combined in the smooth, mellow harmony of a blend beyond imitation—that's what made Camel the world's foremost cigarette—and keeps it just that.

Don't deny yourself the luxury of
